Welcome

Welcome to the Griffith University International Student Guide.

Making the decision to study overseas is a big one, and often involves a number of important people in your life. At Griffith University, we are committed to ensuring that you have the information you need, and feel well-supported and ready to make the most of the renowned Griffith student experience when you join us on campus.

This Guide contains information to help you make the choice that is right for you regarding where and what to study. For nearly 50 years, Griffith has been helping students achieve academic success, and ensuring that all our graduates are well-prepared and ready for their future careers. We are privileged to welcome students from around the world every trimester, and pride ourselves on the support we offer all international students, regardless of the campus or program. We recognise the importance of international rankings but, equally importantly, are committed to ensuring that you are well-supported, that there is someone there to help you with any issues that arise during your journey as a Griffith student, and that you have the opportunity to learn from some of the best university teachers in Australia.

Congratulations on taking this first step, and I hope that you will find what you are looking for in the pages of this Guide. Remember, too, that there is more information and detail about what Griffith has to offer at griffith.edu.au. Please let us know if there is anything more that we can do to support you in making this significant decision. If you do decide Griffith University is the right option for you, we look forward to welcoming you when you arrive on campus.

Build your career

04

Griffith University graduates are well-equipped for the new world of work. We include real-life industry experiences in our degrees and have a great range of employability initiatives to get you job-ready.

Work-integrated learning

Employers like to see real-world experience on your resume. You can gain this practical experience while you study, build your portfolio and develop networks through internships and industry placements. Many work-integrated learning opportunities will allow you to earn credit towards your degree.

Mentoring

Griffith's range of mentoring programs will connect you locally and globally, allowing you to engage with students, alumni and industry professionals. Through our Industry Mentoring Program, we find you a suitable mentor to support and guide your career development.

Leadership programs

Join one of our leadership programs, including the Griffith Business School Student Leadership Program, Griffith Honours College or Griffith Mates. You will receive formal recognition for participating in these programs and gain a range of experience and skills sought after by future employers.

Griffith Honours College

Griffith is the only university in Australia with an honours college. The Griffith Honours College is an extracurricular program for outstanding students that provides experiences to increase your employability and graduate opportunities. Many of these experiences are exclusive to Griffith Honours College students and will enable you to develop a global perspective while enhancing your leadership, communication, teamwork, research and industry skills.

Careers and Employment Service

Our Careers and Employment Service can help you:

- understand your career options
- market yourself to employers
- transition to graduate employment
- find suitable employment while you're studying.

They also have a range of information and events to help you on your journey.

Community Internship

The Community Internship is a 10-credit-point course available to students in most degrees. Through this course, you can make a difference in a local community organisation while developing professional and personal skills. You will spend a minimum of 50 hours in a not-for-profit organisation placement and combine this with academic learning. With hundreds of internship opportunities, we can tailor the internship to match your study area or interests.

International scholarships and awards

We offer a range of scholarships and awards to support international students studying our undergraduate, postgraduate, research and pathway programs. Our scholarships reward academic excellence as well as good academic outcomes throughout a student's degree.

A Griffith scholarship can ease the cost of study significantly, helping to cover tuition fees.

Griffith International scholarships are awarded based on academic achievement and are designed to reward good academic progress throughout a student's degree.

Find out more at:

Where to live

06

Whether you would like to live on-campus or off-campus, there are several options you can explore to find housing to suit your needs. Homestay is another great option and allows you to experience life with a local family while you study.

Temporary and short stay accommodation

It is vitally important that you organise temporary accommodation for your first few days or weeks in Queensland, as it is important that you inspect your long-term off-campus accommodation before you move in. There are short-term accommodation options located near each of our campuses that are easily accessible by public transport.

Off-campus

In Australia, share housing—where you share a house or apartment with a number of other students—is the most common form of off-campus accommodation.

When looking for suitable off-campus accommodation, you will need to consider:

- the cost of rent (usually advertised as a weekly amount)
- if utilities are included in your rent (electricity, water, gas)
- if internet is included in your rent
- if the accommodation is furnished
- how close the accommodation is to your campus
- access to public transport

Off-campus accommodation preferred partners

Griffith University has established preferred partnerships with a selection of off-campus student accommodation providers across its campuses between Brisbane and the Gold Coast. To be included in this program, providers are inspected by University staff and are required to meet a set of performance standards that ensures quality and safety.

Brisbane

Genesis 1; Scape; Student One; UniLodge Park Central; Uniresort.

Logan

UniCentral Griffith.

Gold Coast

University Village; Metro on Central; University Square.

Homestay

Homestay accommodation gives you the option of living with an Australian family while you study. Homestay is available to students at all Griffith campuses. Some homestay providers offer independent living options such as a granny flat. Homestay is a great way to develop your English language skills and experience life in Australia, and offers catered and self-catered options. griffith.edu.au/homestay

You can find additional resources for homestay options on the Gold Coast on the Study Gold Coast website at studygoldcoast.org.au/live/student-accommodation/

On-campus

Griffith offers self-catered accommodation on the Nathan campus and partners with Campus Living Villages to provide self-catered, on-campus accommodation in the Griffith University Village on the Gold Coast campus.

Living on campus is a fantastic way to meet new people, find out about new cultures, and develop independence. On-campus accommodation is fully furnished and provides access to cooking facilities, laundry facilities, common rooms and internet, as well as offering a vibrant social life.

Airport pickup

International students commencing at Griffith University can apply for a free airport pickup, which takes you from the airport directly to your pre-arranged accommodation. The service is free for eligible new international students arriving at the Brisbane or Gold Coast airports. griffith.edu.au/airport-reception

Find out more at:

griffith.edu.au/where-to-live

Cost of living

There are many different costs involved in international study and your cost of living in Australia will vary depending on your lifestyle and personal requirements.

South East Queensland offers a combination of quality education and high living standards.

The cost of living in South East Queensland is considered more affordable than other major Australian cities such as Sydney and Melbourne*.

The Australian Government requires students to have access to a minimum of AUD $21,041 (Australian dollars) per year to meet their living costs, but most students spend more than this. Costs will be higher if you have family members accompanying you.

* In the QS Best Student Cities 2023 rankings, Brisbane and the Gold Coast are ahead of Sydney and Melbourne in the Affordability Rank.

Calculating your total cost of study

Your total cost of studying in Australia will include:

- tuition fees
- visa application fees
- Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)
- flights
- cost of living
- other personal and study-related expenses.

Tuition fees

Tuition fees are reviewed annually, and international students should expect an increase in fees each year. Detailed information on the fees relevant for your degree, including the fees applicable in your commencing trimester, is available at degrees.griffith.edu.au

Weekly cost of living estimate

The majority of the information below is based on 2023 costs according to Study Australia (for more details visit: studyaustralia.gov.au/english/live/living-costs). Please be advised it is an estimate only and individual differences mean prices will vary. Please note these costs do not include: arrival costs, accommodation, security deposit, textbooks, clothing and medical expenses.

	Self-catered on-campus	Share house off-campus	Homestay off-campus
Campus availability	N	G, N, M, S, L	G, N, M, S, L

Clubs and societies

Griffith has over 120 clubs in cultural, religious, political, educational, sporting, professional and special interest areas. There are also international student clubs, societies and associations, including from: Africa, Bangladesh, China, Pacific Islands (Pasifika), Philippines, India, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Papua New Guinea, Sri Lanka, and Vietnam.

griffith.edu.au/clubs

Griffith volunteer community

In addition to Bush Care and Beach Care, Griffith Mates offer a range of other volunteer opportunities, which change each trimester. These can include volunteering at fun runs, community events and caring for the environment.

Griffith Bush Care group

(Brisbane campuses)

Help restore the Australian bush environment and, if you are lucky, see koalas, possums, and sugar gliders. Join us to develop your teamwork skills, learn more about the environment and meet new people.

Griffith Beach Care group

(Gold Coast campus)

Help restore and care for our beautiful coastal environments with the Griffith Beach Care group. This is a great way to give back to the environment, meet new people and enjoy the beaches of the Gold Coast.

griffith.edu.au/mates

Religion

Each Griffith campus provides access to prayer facilities as well as multi-faith chaplains.

griffith.edu.au/chaplaincy

International Student Buddy Program

The International Student Buddy Program runs from Week 1 to Week 4 of each trimester with opportunities to meet at Student Buddy specific events, or Griffith Mates events each week at the Gold Coast and Nathan campuses. Current students (Senior Buddies) provide peer support to commencing international students (Junior Buddies), with each weekly session covering topics to help ease your transition to university life. This is a safe and comfortable environment where you can ask questions about Griffith and life in Australia, as well as practise your English. It is also a great way to make friends!

Griffith Mates

Enjoy the most memorable years of your life with the Griffith Mates. The Griffith Mates are a diverse peer support network for international students, with members who speak over 30 languages. Look out for the Griffith Mates at Orientation—they may even be waiting to welcome you at the airport arrivals hall when you arrive in Australia!

Find out more at:

griffith.edu.au/mates

Griffith Mates will help you make the most of university, develop friendships, practise your English, and:

- meet other international and Australian students
- join in volunteering opportunities, e.g. learn about the Australian environment
- visit amazing locations with the Griffith Mates on day trips around South East Queensland
- attend free on-campus events and activities, from games and sports to networking events
- expand your worldview with cross-cultural leadership opportunities by becoming a Griffith Mate.

Student support

10

You will have access to Griffith University's comprehensive range of student support services, including programs and staff dedicated specifically to helping international students.

International Student Advisory

If you need extra information or support, make an in-person or online appointment with an International Student Advisor. International Student Advisors provide information to support you to manage your life and your studies within the conditions of your student visa. Our team of dedicated and highly experienced staff can answer any questions throughout your time on campus and help guide you towards academic success.

Library

Become acquainted with the library—we have six libraries with a range of resources for study, including computers, quiet study areas and group work spaces. The library has helpful staff as well as a range of online resources to help you with different aspects of your academic life, including assignments, referencing, exam prep, and more!

griffith.edu.au/library

Free airport pickup service

Have a friendly face meet you at the airport when you arrive in Australia! International students commencing at Griffith University can apply for a free airport pickup, which takes you from the airport directly to your pre-arranged accommodation. The service is free for eligible new international students arriving at the Brisbane or Gold Coast airports.

griffith.edu.au/airport-reception

Health and wellbeing

If you need a doctor, there are health and medical services located on the Gold Coast and Nathan campuses, as well as medical centres and hospitals near every campus. If you need someone to talk to about personal issues, we offer free, confidential counselling sessions on our campuses and a range of online counselling options.

griffith.edu.au/student-support

Disability services

At Griffith, we seek to remove barriers that students with disabilities face in higher education. Through our Disability and Accessibility Service, we aim to improve the participation, retention and success of students with disabilities, while ensuring easy access to learning environments. If you would benefit from the support offered by our Disability and Accessibility Service, we encourage you to make contact with our friendly staff before you start or at any time during your degree. Prospective students requiring disability support should make contact early so we can provide advice and information about the support available.

griffith.edu.au/disability

Safe campuses

All members of the Griffith University community have a right to feel welcome, safe and supported. We are committed to providing safe and inclusive campus communities free from harassment, bullying, discrimination and sexual assault. We encourage members of the Griffith community to call out, report and seek support when these behaviours occur.

Know your options

No matter what level of study you have completed, or what English level you have, we have a range of study options and pathways to help you achieve your study goals.

Study options and pathways at Griffith

Trimester teaching

At Griffith, we teach across three trimesters rather than two semesters. Trimesters 1 and 2 are compulsory, so if you begin your degree in Trimester 3, you must complete Trimesters 1 and 2 in the following year. However, if you begin in Trimester 1 or 2, it is not compulsory to enrol in Trimester 3.

Please note: A small number of Griffith degrees require students to enrol in Trimester 3.

Online study

Our online degrees are delivered 100% online, giving you flexibility over where and when you study. Choose between full-time and part-time study options.

Please note: If you enrol in an online or external degree you are not eligible for an Australian student visa.

Explore study options at:
griffith.edu.au/degrees

What am I eligible to study?

Read below for an overview of entry requirements for Griffith University degrees.

Academic entry requirements

Undergraduate (bachelor)

Standard entry*

Completion of secondary school comparable to Australian Year 12 or equivalent academic achievement.

Some programs have higher entry requirements, specific prerequisites or require the submission of portfolios, medical checks or professional work experience.

Pathway option(s)

Study a foundation or diploma program through Griffith College. See pages 18–19.

Gain direct entry into the relevant Griffith University bachelor degree upon completion.

Postgraduate (master)

Standard entry*

A bachelor degree or higher (or equivalent) from a recognised university.

- Master (coursework)
- Graduate Diploma
- Graduate Certificate

You must meet minimum Grade Point Average (GPA) entry requirements. Griffith also recognises the knowledge gained through work experience, as well as prior study, for some degrees.

Pathway option

Study the Masters Qualifying Program (MQP), delivered by Griffith College, for entry into Griffith University masters programs. See pages 18–19.

The MQP provides you with an opportunity to upgrade your prior study to meet direct entry requirements for a selection of Griffith masters programs.

Research

Standard entry*

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)

- A bachelor degree (or equivalent) with class I honours or class IIA honours; or
- a master degree (or equivalent) incorporating a significant research component; or
- a record of research, or a qualification granted by a professional or other body, which is deemed to be of a standard comparable to a bachelor degree with class IIA honours.

Master of Philosophy (MPhil)

- a bachelor degree (or equivalent) with at least class IIB honours incorporating a significant research component; or
- a record of research, or a qualification granted by a professional or other body, which is deemed to be of a standard comparable to a bachelor degree with class IIB honours.

Pathway option(s)

Graduate Diploma of Research Studies

Griffith offers graduate diplomas in specific disciplines.

English language entry requirements

Undergraduate (bachelor), postgraduate (master) and research

Standard entry*

- IELTS: minimum score of 6.5, with no subscore less than 6.0; or
- Internet-based (iBT) TOEFL: score of 79 (no subscore less than 19); or
- Pearson Test of English (Academic): overall score of 58 with no score less than 50; or
- ISLPR: no score less than 3+ in each skill of the ISLPR (conducted by ISLPR Language Services only).

Pathway option(s)

Complete the Direct Entry Program at Griffith English Language Institute. See pages 14–15.

The duration of English study required will vary depending on your current level of English.

* Visit degrees.griffith.edu.au to view the academic and English language entry requirements for your degree.

Griffith English Language Institute (GELI)

14

For more than 30 years, Griffith English Language Institute (GELI) has been delivering English language programs to international students.

Academic workshops

Join our free after-class workshops to improve in specific skill areas such as grammar and vocabulary.

Independent Learning

Use our dedicated resources to undertake additional English study.

Study on Griffith University's campuses

Take advantage of facilities and services that will help you study, meet people, pursue your interests, and practise English.

Direct Entry Program

Join our highly popular Direct Entry Program to gain the English skills necessary to enter a Griffith University degree or Griffith College program.

There are seven levels in the Direct Entry Program, and you will be placed in the appropriate class based on the results from your proficiency test or the Griffith English Test. You will build your English language skills in reading, writing, listening and speaking, and at the higher levels you will practise academic skills that will help you to be successful in your studies at diploma, bachelor, master or PhD level.

When you successfully complete the Direct Entry Program at the equivalent of the IELTS level needed for your degree or diploma, you can enter your program directly without needing to submit a proficiency test result.*

* A small number of degrees require a formal proficiency test for entry. Check the English language entry requirements for your degree at griffith.edu.au/international-study

Direct Entry Program CRICOS 013051D

Fees

Your tuition fees for the Direct Entry Program will vary depending on the number of weeks in which you are enrolled.

2024 fees

Up to 25 weeks: $460 per week

26+ weeks: $430 per week

Enrolment fee: $225

GELI classes

Class sizes at GELI are small so you will receive personal attention from your teachers and progress quickly through your studies.

There are 20 hours of classes per week, two x 2-hour sessions each day, Monday to Friday. There are an additional five hours of independent learning each week, using GELI's independent learning plans.

Activities program

Participate in free and low-cost activities to practise English, make friends and engage with the local community.

Study Abroad and Exchange Programs

16

Our Study Abroad Program and Exchange Program allow you to complete one or two trimesters of study in Australia and earn credit towards your home degree. Choose from a wide range of courses and study at one of our Brisbane or Gold Coast campuses.

Wide range of courses

Griffith has 10 study areas and hundreds of courses for you to choose from. Our study areas include: business and government; criminology and law; education engineering, IT and aviation; humanities, languages and social sciences; health; music and performing arts; science and environment; visual and creative arts. To find a course visit our degree finder on our website and search by 'courses'.

Student Support

Study Abroad and Exchange students can enjoy a wide range of dedicated student support services including International Student Advisory, the Griffith Mates, Careers and Employment Service, and more. See pages 8 and 10 for more services.

Community Internship

The Community Internship is a 10-credit point course, available to students from all degrees. Through this course you will be able to make a difference in a local community organisation while developing a range of professional and personal skills. You will spend a minimum of 50 hours in a not-for-profit organisation placement and combine this with academic learning. With hundreds of internship opportunities, we can tailor the internship to match your study area or interests.

griffith.edu.au/learning-futures/service-learning

How many courses can I study?

At Griffith, a typical full-time study load is 30 to 40 credit points (CP). One course (subject) is usually worth 10CP. You can choose from the following options per trimester:

- 30CP – 3 courses
- 40CP – 4 courses
- 50CP – 5 courses

10CP = 3 to 4 credits in the US system

10CP = 7.5 ECTS in the European system

Note: the above information should be used as a guide only.

'Studying abroad in Australia is the best decision I ever made. The opportunities for adventure and self-discovery are endless, and you'll come back a more confident and self-assured person. I'm so grateful for the chance to experience everything that Australia has to offer.'

Research at Griffith

As one of Australia's leading research universities, we are inspired and motivated by the pursuit of a better world in everything we do. When you choose Griffith, you are choosing a university working to answer society's greatest questions through pioneering research that makes a real difference.

Research infrastructure

Griffith offers world-class facilities and resources for research candidates, and we continue to invest in campus developments to create the best possible environment and experience for our research community.

Support to succeed

We'll support you through your entire research journey, from orientation to planning your research degree, research methodology, training workshops, writing and publishing, and presenting your research.

Collaboration and connection

We host more than 30 research centres and institutes across our campuses and, with more than 1,700 experts conducting research, we provide multidisciplinary and practical research supervision.

Above world standard

Latest analysis of Excellence in Research for Australia found 99% of our research outputs were in disciplines rated at world standard or above.

Research with impact

At Griffith University, we're driven by the pursuit of a brighter future.

Malaria vaccine

The Institute for Glycomics is developing and manufacturing a world-leading malaria vaccine—PlasProtecTTM— which is now at human-trial stage.

Discovering the world's oldest rock art

Our researchers have discovered what may be the world's oldest known cave painting—earning the team a place in Science magazine's top-10 scientific breakthroughs of 2020.

Leading aerospace innovation and discovery

Using our unique manufacturing and 3D printing capabilities, our experts are working with key industry partners to research, design and prototype a new class of low Earth orbit satellite due to launch from Queensland, Australia in 2023.

Tackling water quality threats to the Great Barrier Reef

Our researchers are testing the role wetlands play in improving the water quality of the Great Barrier Reef, to directly influence Australian Government policy.

Advanced Design and Prototyping Technology Institute (ADaPT)

In collaboration with industry, Griffith researchers are pushing the boundaries in advanced design, prototyping and new materials to engineer next-generation biomedical and industrial applications.

Climate action

Griffith is taking a step beyond research into practice, to work with communities on addressing the motivations of climate action, how to transition to a zero-carbon resilient future, and how to ensure climate justice.

Reimagining disability

Through a University-led alliance, Griffith is collaborating with people with disability, industry, government, health and social service providers that will look to solve the most pressing real-world challenges for people living with disability.

Research study options

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)

The PhD is Griffith's premier research training degree. It is awarded for a thesis, drafted under supervision, which makes an original, significant, and extensive contribution to knowledge and understanding in your field of study. A PhD is available across all schools and disciplines.

Griffith also offers:

- Doctor of Philosophy (by prior publication)
- professional Doctorates (psychology, education, musical arts and visual arts).

Master of Philosophy

The Master of Philosophy (MPhil) is awarded for a thesis, drafted under supervision, which presents original research and demonstrates both knowledge of a research topic and discipline.

It is shorter than a PhD and is available across all schools and disciplines. Griffith also offers specialist Masters by Research (combine coursework with professional and/or artistic practice).

Find a supervisor

Griffith researchers provide multidisciplinary and practical solutions for industry, government and community. With them, you can explore research answering the critical questions of the future and translating research outcomes into real-world solutions.

Once you have determined your research area, you need to find and connect with a potential supervisor to discuss your research proposal.

The best way to find and contact a potential supervisor is to search Griffith Experts, an online database of all our academics.

experts.griffith.edu.au

How to apply

At Griffith University, we understand that everyone's experience is different. If you are ready to take your research studies or career to the next level, whatever your circumstances, we can help you achieve your goals.

01

Choose your preferred research degree and check entry requirements.

If you don't meet the direct entry requirements for a research degree, you may consider a Graduate Diploma of Research Studies, which provides an alternative pathway into such programs.

02

Consider the cost of study and search for funding options.

This could include scholarships or sponsorships.

03

Choose a research topic and develop a research proposal.

Narrow your focus to a single research topic. Depending on your area of study and research, you may identify a research topic or project from within an established research team, or you might collaborate with an external organisation.

04

Find a supervisor.

You must have identified a suitable supervisor before you can apply. Once you have connected with your prospective supervisor, it is important that you seek their input and advice on your research proposal.

05

Apply.

When you're ready, apply online or via a registered recruitment representative.

Find out more at:

griffith.edu.au/research-study

What you will study

Construction managers direct and manage complex projects, ensuring they are completed safely, on-time and on-budget. This degree will equip you with in-depth theoretical knowledge and modern digital skills for the future to fulfil the demands of this role. You'll learn about construction and building practices, the fundamentals of sustainable construction, project development and management, construction economics, and site and safety operations in a global context. In your final year, you'll develop your professional skills through a 12-week industry placement in a construction practice environment. You will also complete a thesis aligned with your professional practice experience and the wider needs of industry.

Professional recognition

As a graduate, you'll meet the Queensland Building and Construction Commission's technical qualification requirements to hold a Builder Open class of licence and a Builder Project Management Services licence, subject to industry experience requirements.

Professional accreditation

This degree is provisionally accredited by the Australian Institute of Building (AIB). The requirements of the Chartered Institute of Building (CIOB) in the UK and the Australia Institute of Quantity Surveyors (AIQS) have been considered in the development of this degree.

Work integrated learning

Students must complete a 40 credit point Work Integrated Learning course in their final year. This Work Integrated Learning course can be taken as either an Industry Affiliates Program (IAP) or a team-based Industry Project. IAP has been designed to integrate students into the workplace through the completion of an industry-based project. It is designed to benefit both the student as well as the industry partner. IAP requires both an industry professional supervisor and an academic supervisor.

Total Work Placement (hours): 442 hours.

Career opportunities

You'll be prepared for a rewarding career as a construction professional. Your industry knowledge, combined with strong skills in problem-solving, decision-making, communication and technology, will prepare you for leadership roles across the full spectrum of construction projects. You may find employment opportunities in positions such as construction manager, site manager and supervisor, project manager, cost estimator, construction economist, property developer, manager and contract administrator.

‘The next step is to extend this dream to deliver my skills and design for people around the world, helping to save our planet and enhancing people’s lifestyles. All the knowledge that I got during my research study, engaging with industry and projects that touch people’s lives, especially in buildings and the built environment, motivated me to design and work on my pet project, the ‘Smart Planter Box’.’

What you will study

Griffith's Bachelor of Business is an alternative to more traditional business degrees, combining new skills, values, and opportunities relevant for the new economy. It's a whole new way of thinking for a whole new generation of business professionals.

Discovery year

In your first two trimesters, you'll complete six discovery subjects that are based in the core skills critical to successful business operations (including analytics, accounting, economics, management, organisational psychology, marketing, international business) and apply them to practical challenges using the principles of sustainability, inclusiveness and equity—values that shape public debate today. You'll also be part of an innovative new approach to learning, designed to give you a 360-degree view of business strategy.

Honing your skills

In your second two trimesters, you can choose to major (a focus of study within your degree) in the field of your choice. The new Bachelor of Business offers you a wider choice, now with more than 20 majors. You can combine majors from different disciplines; for example, you can graduate with a Bachelor of Business in Accounting and Management or a Bachelor of Business in International Business and Economics.

Majors

As a student of our Bachelor of Business, you can choose from an extensive list of majors to specialise your knowledge and skills. Alternatively, you can choose to be an all-rounder and not major—either way, you'll be able to tailor your study to suit you.

- Accounting
- Asian Business
- Asian Engagement
- Behavioural Science
- Business Analytics
- Economics
- Employment Relations
- Events
- Finance
- Financial Planning
- Political Science and International Relations
- Human Resource Management
- Innovation and Entrepreneurship

- International Business

Student Investment Fund

For accounting, economics, finance and financial planning students, Queensland's largest student-managed investment fund is the real deal—a bona fide opportunity to invest on the stock market. Every decision has implications, every investment carries the weight of responsibility, and every part of this experience is priceless for graduates entering the work market. In Griffith's Refinitiv trading rooms, the students analyse and evaluate the same live data used by finance professionals around the world. In the boardroom, they pitch their trading proposals to an experienced investment committee, and all earnings go toward scholarships for future business students.

Honours available

The Bachelor of Advanced Business (Honours) offers the opportunity to further distinguish yourself. You can enrol in the Honours program from the start or transfer into it from the Bachelor of Business if you meet the criteria.

Griffith Business School is an accredited member of the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) – International.

AACSB Accreditation is known worldwide as the longest standing, most recognised form of professional accreditation an institution and its business programs can earn.

'As an international student, building my professional career is essential and Griffith University has provided students like me services such as the BusinessPLUS program, and Careers and Employment services, which offers a range of workshops and events students can benefit from. I am grateful to be part of a community that does not only focus on helping a student grow as a professional but also as an individual.'

Criminology and criminal justice

	Start Trimester	Duration	Campus	Honours	Credit pts.	IELTS	Academic	Pathways	Program	CRICOS
Bachelor of Criminology and Criminal Justice	Mar, Jul	3F	G, M, O	✓	240	6.5	S	✓	1112	061466E

What you will study

In this degree, you'll learn about the causes of crime and society's response through the justice system while drawing on knowledge and insights from many fields of study, including psychology, law, sociology, politics and social work. In your first year, you'll learn about the current trends in crime in Australia and overseas, and explore proven ways that crime can be examined, prevented and reduced. You'll participate in courses that include the police, courts and criminal law, and the role mental health plays in crime. In your second and third years, you'll choose from elective courses in policing, corrections, working with offenders and victims, counter-terrorism, or crime analysis and investigation. You can also choose non-criminology electives.

Career opportunities

You'll be prepared to pursue employment opportunities in policing and security, intelligence, probation and parole, child protection, crime analysis, courts and justice services, crime prevention and regulatory agencies. When you graduate, you'll be equipped for a career in areas such as law enforcement, working directly with offenders or victims in welfare and counselling roles, and in criminological research and policy roles.

Job-ready skills

Throughout your studies, you'll gain and develop industry-relevant skills and experience working on real projects. You will build on this part of your degree through a capstone course focusing on addressing a current local community crime problem.

In your final year, you'll have the opportunity to complete a professional placement experience through the Criminology Undergraduate Research Internship Program. You'll be mentored one-on-one by criminology experts and can select an internship to suit your interests from a diverse range of research projects.

Honours available

Honours is available for this degree (through an additional year of study).

Double degree option(s)

Combine Criminology and Criminal Justice with: Psychological Science; Forensic Science; Human Services; Political Science; Information Technology; and International Relations.

Pathway option(s)

- Diploma of Criminology and Criminal Justice

'I studied conflict and how professionals, specifically mediators, need to be able to develop rapport, build trust, and display professionalism to be effective. My research argued that each of these three primarily rely on nonverbal communication: body movement, environmental factors, touch, tone, and appearance. My PhD work further suggests that if what I found helps mediators during conflicts, the findings can also assist others working in crisis, disputes, and conflict as well. My PhD work at Griffith created the foundation of the research and work I continue to do today.'

What you will study

The Master of Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) provides academic and pedagogical foundations for professionals who are or will be involved in work that focuses on the learning and teaching of English as a second or foreign language. The degree provides a qualification in the teaching of English in a variety of contexts with a strong focus on teaching in the Asia-Pacific region.

The program content is internationalised and intercultural, focusing on the development of a knowledge base and analytical skills that will enable graduates to operate in a range of roles involving the need to understand how second and foreign languages are learned. Much of the content of the program is also relevant to teachers of languages other than English. The course includes a research component requiring the knowledge and application of research principles and practices relating to professional work or learning in TESOL.

Please note that this program does not lead to teacher registration with the Queensland College of Teachers.

Entry requirements

Any bachelor degree or higher OR a combination of alternative admission criteria such as formal, informal and non-formal learning deemed to be equivalent to a bachelor degree or higher.

Career opportunities

Graduates may find employment opportunities locally or overseas, teaching English as a second or foreign language, or working in leadership positions in language teaching institutions. You may find opportunities at TAFE or technical colleges, university language centres, private language schools and language teaching institutions for migrants.

What you will study			Grow your network			Career opportunities
It takes specialist management skills to keep the aviation industry flying, in operational business roles and in the public sector. In recognition of the unique demands of aviation, this degree has been designed alongside industry to ensure we produce graduates with the core competencies that employers demand. This includes knowledge in airport planning, operations and management, human factors for aviation managers, security and risk management, government-business relations, business data analysis, and more. As a graduate, you will have the tools and people skills needed to succeed in this complex and dynamic industry.			Building strong connections is an integral part of any business. During your studies, you can get to know your peers and foster lifelong relationships through clubs such as the Griffith University Aviation Association (GUAvA). Dedicated to all things aviation, the club enhances student experiences by providing opportunities for students to participate in activities such as flying camps, social events and hangar tours. The club also supports the aviation Mentoring Aviators Through Educational Support (MATES) program through weekly BBQs and industry guest speakers, funding for inter-flight competitions and hosting an annual awards night.			As a graduate of this degree, you'll be equipped for employment in aviation management. You will also be able to apply your management skills to many areas of the aviation industry, including airlines, airports, air traffic service providers, maintenance and repair organisations, and government agencies such as the Civil Aviation Safety Authority (CASA) and the Australian Transport Safety Bureau (ATSB).

What you will study

This program helps you to develop and further your career in public health practice, research and/or management. It allows you to re-orient your work interests in health to disease prevention and health promotion and is widely recognised both nationally and internationally as the public health credential for careers in public health.

The program focuses on the socio-ecological model of public health that emphasises and analyses the important interactions between the social, biological, economic and environmental determinants of health. They enable you to apply this analytical skill set to plan, implement and evaluate population-based interventions that protect and promote health.

The program has a strong focus on global health and provides you with the opportunity to focus your public health studies by selecting a range of electives in areas such as public health nutrition, health promotion, climate change, international health, environmental health, and health services management.

Entry requirements

Related bachelor degree or higher OR a Graduate Certificate in Public Health from Griffith University with a minimum GPA of 4.0 (using a 7.0 point scale).

Career opportunities

There are diverse career opportunities for professionals interested in moving into the public health field, developing health research skills and/or furthering competency development in public health practice areas such as: international health; humanitarian aid; health program planning and evaluation; health promotion; health policy; epidemiology and biostatistics; environmental health management; maternal and child health; and public health nutrition. You will be prepared for a variety of career opportunities with state and federal health departments, in public health units/teams, community health, local government, and in academia. Public health graduates are also highly sought after by NGO health agencies and international aid agencies.

Professional recognition

As a graduate of the Master of Global Public Health, you will be eligible for membership of the following professional bodies:

- Public Health Association of Australia (PHAA)
- Australian Health Promotion Association (AHPA)
- International Union for Health Promotion and Education (IUHPE).

What you will study Science is at the heart of every facet of life. It is a fascinating career choice, with research and development at its core. In this degree, you'll study all areas of the sciences before specialising with your choice of major. You'll have the flexibility to decide what interests you the most, so you can shape a career you're passionate about in the biological, clinical, chemical, physical or mathematical sciences. Research with impact You'll have access to experts from renowned research centres who are focused on solving the big problems that face us today. They're developing new drugs to combat cancer and infectious diseases, new sources of energy to power our society, and new ways to manage our waterways and improve food production. Majors As a student of this degree, you can choose to specialise in up to two of the below areas: • Applied Mathematics (Gold Coast, Nathan) • Archaeology (Nathan) • Biochemistry and Molecular Biology (Gold Coast, Nathan) • Chemistry (Gold Coast, Nathan) • Clinical Sciences (Nathan) • Data Science (Gold Coast, Nathan) • Geography (Gold Coast, Nathan) • Marine Biology (Gold Coast) • Microbiology (Nathan) • Physics (Gold Coast, Nathan) • Wildlife Biology (Gold Coast, Nathan) Choosing to study a double major won't add extra time to your degree—you can still graduate in three years with your additional specialisation, and become a truly interdisciplinary scientist. Honours At the end of your third year, providing you're eligible, you'll have the option of applying for the Honours program. Honours is a fourth year of study, during which you'll undertake a major research project under the supervision of a member of the academic staff. Professional recognition Depending on your major, you'll be eligible to join: • Ausbiotech • Australian Mathematical Society • Australia and New Zealand Society for Cell and Developmental Biology • Australian Institute of Food Science and Technology • Australian Society for Biochemistry and Molecular Biology • Australian Society for Medical Research • Australian Society of Plant Scientists • Royal Australian Chemical Institute • Australian Institute of Physics. Career opportunities Depending on your major, you'll be prepared for a wide array of careers in biological, chemical and clinical sciences as a microbiologist, pharmaceutical scientist, biochemist, chemist or biotechnologist; as a statistician, mathematician or physicist; or, with additional study, in a broader role—for example, as a science journalist, patent lawyer, or science teacher.
Bachelor of Advanced Science (Honours)	Mar, Jul	4	G, N	✓	320	6.5	H2 N/A	1330	060396M
Major(s): Applied Mathematics; Archaeological Science; Archaeology (N); Biochemistry and Molecular Biology; Chemistry; Clinical Sciences (N); Data Science; Geography; Marine Biology (G); Microbiology (N); Physics; Wildlife Biology. Specialisation(s): Applied Mathematics; Biosciences; Chemistry; Geography; Marine Science (G); Physics; Wildlife Biology.

Data science

Data science can now be studied as a major in the Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Advanced Science (Honours) degrees, or as part of a double degree with Engineering, Science, Business or Environmental Science. This will allow you to develop a specialised skill set that can be applied to your chosen major of study, and broaden your career options.

Design

Bachelor of Design	Mar, July, Nov	3F	G, S	✓	240	6.5	S	✓	1189	020086A

What you will study
If you're passionate about contemporary design opportunities and designing for a sustainable future, this degree will equip you with the creative and technical skills and insights to rise to future design challenges. It will prepare you for designing future products, services and systems in a creative and critical way. You'll gain a unique perspective on how the world impacts design and how design shapes the world around us. In partnership with leading experts and industry, you'll gain the skills to tackle real design problems and devise leading-edge strategies and solutions.

- Majors
As a student of this degree, you can choose to specialise in one of the following areas:
- Immersive Design
 - Interaction Design
 - Interior and Spatial Design
 - Product Design
 - Visual Communication Design

Career opportunities
You'll be prepared to join the ranks of adventurous designers changing the way we interact with our environment and enhancing the way we live. You'll gain the industry experience, networks and knowledge needed to succeed in cutting edge design fields.

Double degree option(s)
Combine Design with: Business.

Professional recognition
As a graduate, you'll be eligible for membership of the Design Institute of Australia.

Industry experiences
In this degree, you'll work on projects for real clients through our QCALive work-integrated learning studios, including our commercial design studios, Liveworm and Livespace.

Pathway option(s)
· Diploma of Design

How to apply

60

Applying to study at Griffith is easy. With applications open all year round, you can complete your application in six simple steps.

01

Choose the degree you want to study.

Find the degree which meets your career and study goals at griffith.edu.au/international-study

02

Check if you meet entry requirements.

Consider a pathway option if you don't meet direct entry requirements (see page 22).

03

Check if you are eligible for credit.

If you have existing formal qualifications or relevant work experience, you may be eligible to receive credit, which will reduce the duration of your study. griffith.edu.au/credit

04

Prepare supporting documentation.

Include certified copies of your academic and English test results (translated into English if applicable) plus a portfolio or audition if relevant to your degree.

05

Apply online.

Apply online or via a registered recruitment representative. griffith.edu.au/apply/international

If you are currently studying at an Australian high school you may apply through QTAC.

06

Accept your offer.

You must return evidence of meeting any outstanding conditions in your Letter of Offer, formally accept your offer and pay your total deposit fee.

Application dates

We recommend that you apply by:

- 31 January (to start in Trimester 1)
- 3 June (to start in Trimester 2)
- 30 September (to start in Trimester 3).

You must allow enough time for your visa application to be processed to enable you to arrive in time for Orientation Week. Some degrees have different application closing dates. Check if this applies to your degree at degrees.griffith.edu.au

After you accept your offer

Once you have accepted your offer you will receive an electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE) which you will need when you apply for a student visa. Visit griffith.edu.au/international/plan-your-move-to-australia for useful information about life in Australia including:

- Accommodation
- Griffith support services
- Orientation
- Public transport
- Moving to Australia with a family.

How to use this guide

The following information will help you understand how to read this guide.

Campuses

G = Gold Coast S = South Bank
L = Logan O = Online
M = Mt Gravatt E = External
N = Nathan

If you enrol in an online or external degree you are not eligible for an Australian student visa. Online and external degrees can be studied part-time.

Modes of study

F = Full-time study
P = Part-time study

For example, 3F = three years full-time,
1P = one year part-time

Programs and courses

A student is admitted to a program, and on successful completion of all program requirements is awarded the degree to which the program relates.

Programs are made up of courses that are usually attributed 10 credit points each. At Griffith, a typical full-time study load is 4 courses per trimester (40 credit points).

Credit points

Credit Point (CP) refers to the value of a course. Generally, one course is worth 10 credit points.

This may differ depending on your area of study. This Guide contains the total number of credit points each degree is worth.

Pathways

Degrees with a tick in the pathways column have a Griffith College academic pathway. Find out more on pages 18–19.

Tuition fees

2024 indicative full-time fees are calculated on the basis of 80 CP of study (2 trimesters full-time).

Tuition fees are in Australian dollars and are subject to an annual review.

Find out more at:

griffith.edu.au/apply/international/fees

Duration

Unless stated otherwise, all degree durations (years) are for full-time study. For most programs, full-time study is 80 CP per year (or 40 CP per trimester).

Full-time enrolment is normally a condition of retaining a student visa.

Honours

Degrees with a tick in the honours column have one optional year of honours research or the opportunity to complete honours within the degree.

Entry requirements

Grade Point Average (GPA)

Your Grade Point Average (GPA) is the measure used for academic achievement at Griffith University. The university uses a 7.0 scale where 4.0 is a passing mark.

Your GPA is calculated using your academic grades and the credit point value of the courses you have completed.

You can calculate your GPA using the method shown in the Calculation of Grade Point Average policy.

griffith.edu.au/students/assessment-exams-grades

Undergraduate academic entry scale

Standard – S

Higher – H1, H2, H3, H4, H5, H6

(H1 = lowest, H6 = highest)

A list of undergraduate entry requirements by country, for a selection of countries, are listed on page 66.

It is also available in the 'How to Apply' tab for each degree on degrees.griffith.edu.au

Postgraduate academic entry scale

A – any bachelor degree (or equivalent) from a recognised university.

R – a related bachelor degree (or equivalent) from a recognised university.

O – a combination of other academic entry requirements.

Some degrees have additional academic entry requirements, including specific GPAs and work experience. Please check the academic entry requirements for your degree at degrees.griffith.edu.au

English language

All Griffith degrees have English language entry requirements. You can check the minimum overall IELTS score for your degree in the program pages of this Guide.

Below is a list of other tests we accept, and the corresponding results, based on our most common IELTS score:

- A minimum overall band score of 6.5 on IELTS (Academic) (no sub-score less than 6.0); or
- a minimum score of 575 on TOEFL; or
- an internet-based (iBT) TOEFL score of 79 (no sub-score less than 19); or
- no score less than 3+ in each skill of the ISLPR (conducted by ISLPR Language Services only); or
- a minimum overall score of 176 (no score less than 169) on C1 Advanced (formerly Cambridge Certificate in Advanced English) or C2 Proficiency (formerly Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English); or
- an overall score of 58 in the Pearson Test of English (Academic) with no score less than 50.

Griffith University does not normally accept English language test results that are more than two years old.

Some degrees have higher English language requirements. Visit degrees.griffith.edu.au
