POLICIES & PROCEDURES

There are a number of important policies and procedures relevant to all aspects of your engagement with the college. Policies and Procedures can be found on our website: reachcollege.edu.au

TUITION PROTECTION SERVICE (TPS)

The TPS is an initiative of the Australian Government to assist international students whose education providers are unable to fully deliver their course of study. The TPS ensures that students can either:

- complete their studies in another course or with another education provider or
- receive a refund of their unspent tuition fees (international students).

TPS offers a flexible and streamlined approach to student study and refund arrangements in the event that a defaulting provider fails to meet its refund obligations under the ESOS Act.

For more information about the college's refund policy, please refer to the Refund Policy found on our website: reachcollege.edu.au

For more information about TPS, please refer to the website: www.education.gov.au/tps

PRIVACY

The college strongly supports the privacy and confidentiality of its students. Information is collected and stored in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988. Certain general, non-specific information such as location, sex, age and results may be passed on to agencies to inform future funding arrangements and/or statistical data gathering requirements.

We will not give out your information to any person or agency without your permission, unless we are required to do so by law.

The college is required to comply with the Australian Privacy Principles which are outlined in Schedule 1 of the Privacy Act 1988.

ACCESS TO YOUR RECORDS

If you wish to access your student information file, please direct your enquiry to Student Support at studentsupport@reachcollege.edu.au

COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS

Students have the right to lodge a formal complaint or appeal if they feel they have been unfairly treated by the college or its staff and they have been unable to resolve the grievance or dispute informally. The college has a documented internal complaints handling and appeals process and policy in place, available on our website at: reachcollege.edu.au.

If you wish to lodge a complaint, please complete and submit the Complaints & Appeals Form, available at: reachcollege.edu.au. If you are still unsatisfied with the outcome of the formal complaint, you have the right to appeal the decision.

PROCESS

Internal Complaints/Appeals

Overseas students who wish to make a complaint/appeal or grievance are encouraged to attempt to resolve their complaint/appeal through a formal discussion. The college staff, within 10 working days, will commence assessment of the complaint or appeal. The college will keep a written record of the complaint or appeal, including a statement of the outcome and reasons for the outcome.

When a complaint/appeal is not straightforward regarding a serious matter that requires significant and immediate attention, the student may directly turn to the Formal Complaints/Appeals Procedure. The college staff are also available to assist students in lodging the relevant documentation for formal complaint/appeal investigations.

External Complaints/Appeals

If the conditions where the complaint/appeal or grievance of the student is not able to be resolved through the formal complaints/appeals procedure, the student can appeal the decision externally through the Office of the Commonwealth Ombudsman (Overseas Students - Commonwealth Ombudsman) www.ombudsman.gov.au to escalate your complaint or appeal externally within 10 (ten) working days, at no cost.

For more details, please refer to the college's Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure, available at: reachcollege.edu.au

MONITORING STUDENT ATTENDANCE AND COURSE PROGRESS

We monitor your progress closely. Attendance and assessments help us identify areas where you may need additional support. If you're falling behind, we'll reach out to discuss your progression and offer assistance.

Students must maintain a satisfactory level of course progress and attendance in accordance with the college policy and procedure.

The Intervention Strategy Plan (ISP) for a student with unsatisfactory course progress can include but is not limited to phone notification, a reminder letter of course attendance, and any email communication between a student and the college staff for the improvement of a student's course attendance.

It is the student's responsibility to ensure they have access to their college email address for the purpose of direct communication with the college staff and to ensure they attend all classes. It is also a student's responsibility to notify and discuss any absences with their teacher/trainer (e.g., a student may inform trainers/teachers of any difficulties preventing them from attending classes).

A college administrative support officer will follow up with a student who is absent from their scheduled classes and, if necessary, create an ISP which is a documented process agreed upon between the trainer and the student, outlining the academic support and/or assistance to a student to achieve satisfactory course progress in any study period.

The strategies outlined in the ISP may include but are not limited to counselling, assistance with study, extra classes, additional training or tuition, reducing the student's workload temporarily, referring to student support services, assisting with welfare, housing or other personal issues that are impacting the student.

Overseas students have additional course progression requirements as a condition of their student visa.

For more information, please refer to the Monitoring Student Attendance and Course Progress Policy and Procedure on our website at: reachcollege.edu.au

ASSESSMENT

Assessment is specifically conducted to determine if a student can deliver essential outcomes related to the performance criteria within each Unit of Competency. Basically, this means assessment is conducted to see whether or not a student has the required skills and knowledge to perform effectively in the workplace. If a student's performance in the assessment does not demonstrate the requirements, the student is marked as 'Not Competent', while successful performance will result in the student being deemed 'Competent'. Assessors will look for evidence against which to base their judgements of competency.

The ways to demonstrate to our qualified assessors that you can perform to the required standard and be classed as "Competent" or "Meeting Requirements", include:

Being observed as you work/perform the tasks and activities

- Responses to verbal questioning
- Written response to theory questions
- Responding to a role play or case study

SUBMITTING ASSESSMENT

- You are expected to complete assessments for all units in your qualification
- You will need to submit assessments by the due date for a result to be recorded.
- You will receive detailed instructions on the requirements for each
- assessment, including its context and purpose
- Ensure you talk to your trainer and/or assessor to clarify anything that is not clear to you

ASSESSMENT FEEDBACK

You will receive feedback regarding the outcome of each of your assessment items. To be deemed "Competent" against a nationally accredited unit, you must meet the requirements for all elements that comprise that unit.

PLAGIARISM

All work that you submit must be your own. You will have signed a declaration at the start of each assessment that this will be the case. Plagiarism is taking someone else's work and/or ideas and passing them off as your own. It is a form of cheating and is taken seriously by the college. To help you understand, the following are examples that constitute plagiarism:

- Copying sections of text and not acknowledging where the information has come from
- Mashing together multiple 'cut and paste' sections, without properly referencing them, to form an assessment response
- Presenting work that was done as part of a group as your own
- Using information (pictures, text, designs, ideas etc.) and not citing the original author(s)
- Unintentionally failing to cite where information has come from

REFERENCING

When it comes to properly acknowledging where information has come from, students should be aware of, and be able to properly use, referencing protocols.

TRAINING AND ASSESSMENT STRATEGIES

The college staff are appropriately qualified and have sufficient, relevant industry experience to train and assess the courses delivered. On occasion, a subject specialist may conduct assessment in conjunction with a fully qualified assessor. You will be advised of specific instances in your course whereby this may be the case.
Our methodologies regarding training and assessment work toward ensuring our processes meet national assessment principles including Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL), and Credit Transfer (CT).

ISSUING CERTIFICATES

Upon successful completion of your course and payment of all fees, you will receive a Certificate or Statement of Attainment within 30 calendar days of being assessed as competent and meeting all course requirements. This meets the compliance requirements under the Standards for RTOs 2015.

If for some reason the college ceases to operate whilst you are still enrolled, a Statement of Attainment will be issued to you for the units within the qualification for which you have successfully met requirements.

DEFERRAL, SUSPENSION AND CANCELLATION OF ENROLMENT

- The college may defer or suspend the enrolment of a student if it believes there are compassionate or compelling circumstances
- Before the college defers or suspends a student's enrolment for compassionate of compelling circumstances, it is to ensure that the student has a valid CoE with a start date that reflects the student's intended date of return to studies
- The college may suspend or cancel a student's enrolment for reasons, including, but not limited to:
  - misbehaviour by the student, in breach of the Student Conduct Rules
  - the student's failure to pay an amount he or she was required to pay the college to undertake or continue the course as stated in the written agreement
  - a breach of course progress or attendance requirements by the student, in accordance with Standard 8 of the National Code (see also: The college Monitoring Student Attendance and Academic Progress Policy and Procedure)
- Before deferring, suspending or cancelling a student's enrolment, the college is to advise the student in writing that the process may impact their student visa, in particular, if the grounds for the deferral, suspension or cancellation is due to:
  - the conduct of the student
  - for reasons other than compassionate or compelling circumstances
  - compassionate or compelling circumstances, where the studies of the student cease to exist
  - fraudulent evidence or documents provided to the college by the student

LEGISLATION

As an RTO, the college is required to adhere to legislation designed to uphold the integrity of nationally recognised qualifications. This includes:

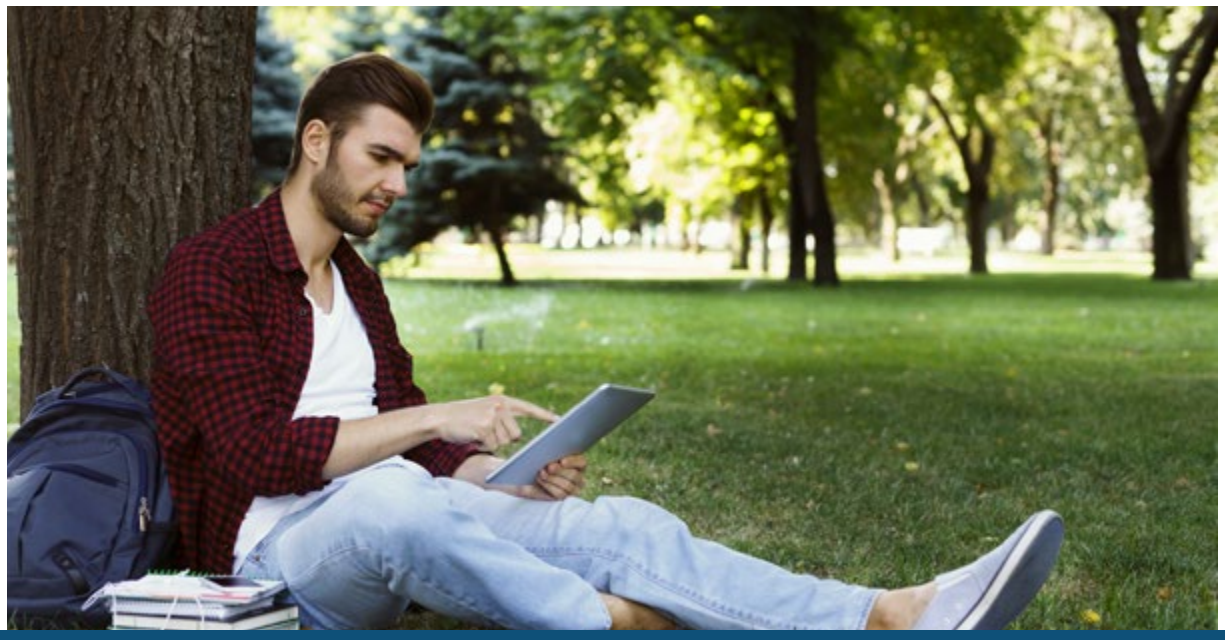

- National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011
- Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015

HEALTH (OSHC)

WHICH INSURERS OFFER OSHC

- BUPA Australia
- Medibank Private Limited
- Nib Health Funds Limited
- Australian Health Management
- Peoplecare Health Limited (Allianz Global Assistance)

It is a standard requirement for every International student to purchase Overseas Students Health Cover (OSHC) to live and study in Australia. This provides each student with the basic services of the Australian Healthcare System such as access to an ambulance (in the case of an emergency dial 000), making an appointment with a General Practitioner (GP) and requesting a home doctor.

Most of these services are free and are covered by your insurance provider. If there is an out of pocket expense for medical services, contact your insurance provider for the possibility of claiming back the money. Please note that claims are subject to your insurance provider's policies.

It is important you contact your OSHC insurer before being admitted to a private hospital. While private hospitals will still provide you with medical attention, be aware that not all of their services will be covered by OSHC and you may have to pay extra for these services.

The membership card is provided to you once you register your details with your OSHC provider upon arriving in Australia and it will be sent to the address you include during the registration.

ADJUSTING TO AUSTRALIAN CULTURE

Living and studying in Australia can be an exciting new adventure, but it can also present a range of challenges adjusting to living in a new country and culture. Adapting to the Australian way of life may take time and patience. It is quite normal for most students to experience homesickness from time to time and can simply be that you may be missing your family, friends or lifestyle.

If you ever feel homesick, please talk to our student support team or our student counsellor. There are also many associations in Hobart, Sydney and Melbourne where you can find support from people who have experienced the same feelings and challenges. It is important to give yourself some time to adjust so that you can fully experience and embrace a new and different culture!

ACCOMMODATION

There are several accommodation options to choose from in Hobart, Sydney and Melbourne. The price of accommodation may vary according to the type of accommodation.

Accommodation choices may range from short term arrangements such as hotels, motels, backpackers to shared options such as granny flats, studio apartments, student accommodations etc.

HOMESTAY

Homestay is another go-to option for student accommodation because it helps students settle in a new environment before learning to live by themselves. Homestay provides students an opportunity to live with an Australian family and learn the culture. Students are provided with meals and other amenities to make their stay very comfortable. If you are interested in a Homestay arrangement, please contact student support.

STUDENT ACCOMMODATION

This accommodation arrangement offers various styles and configurations such as studio (single) and shared apartments for four to six people. These apartments could be same sex or mixed.

RENTAL

Most rental properties require a bond and is usually equivalent to the amount of four weeks' rent. If you have a limited budget, you may consider sharing a house or apartment with several friends or looking for share house accommodation. This allows you to split the costs among several people. Some places may ask you to sign a lease committing to 6 months or 12 months, while others may be more flexible.

If you leave early in your lease term, (called breaking lease) your landlord or agent may seek compensation. Another thing to consider is location. It is important to think whether your accommodation is close to shops and restaurants, and how long it takes to travel to your campus and work. Consider living close to your campus, otherwise look into public transport options.

SUN SMART

The sun in Australia is very strong and can cause sun damage or skin cancer. Australia has one of the highest rates of skin cancer in the world. To avoid sunburn and lower the risk of developing skin cancer, it is important that you follow these simple precautions:

Protect your skin - For best protection, we recommend a combination of sun protection measures:

SLIP, SLOP, SLAP

- Slip on some sun-protective clothing that covers as much skin as possible
- Slop on broad spectrum, water resistant SPF30+ (or higher) sunscreen. Put it on 20 minutes before you go outdoors and every two hours afterwards. Sunscreen should never be used to extend the time you spend in the sun
- Slap on a hat – broad brim or legionnaire style to protect your face, head, neck and ears
- Seek shade
- Slide on some sunglasses – make sure they meet Australian Standards.

OBEYING THE LAW

The law in Australia is intended for all Australians and visitors, which includes international students as well. Obeying the law will ensure you avoid breaching your visa conditions. Disobeying the law, in some cases could land you in jail or get your deported from the country. One prevalent law in Australia covers the topic of discrimination which is greatly frowned upon.

Every individual living in Australia must learn to respect others and not act with prejudice in relation to gender, nationality, religious beliefs, disability, marital status and sexual preference.

RELIGION

Hobart, Sydney and Melbourne are multicultural cities where you can find churches, temples, mosques and religious centres. Google to find one close to you! Worship centres sometimes provide free English lessons and fun activities for international students as well.

MARRIAGE AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Under Australian law, men and women have equal rights and may choose to enter into marriage. An individual can be legally married at the age of 18. Marriage to more than one person is against the law and could be punishable by jail time.

Violence against another person is illegal in Australia. This includes physical abuse, sexual abuse, assault, social abuse, economic abuse, physiological, emotional and verbal abuse.

All forms of violence are punishable by jail sentence or deportation.

LOCAL REGULATIONS

Below are some of the regulations that must be adhered to when living in Australia:

- Australian law protects wildlife such as plants, trees and ferns. All protected wildlife should not be destroyed
- Australia is very clean and maintain this cleanliness with strict littering regulations. Do not litter, rather use the disposable garbage cans provided by observing the trash description of trash and recyclables
- Smoking is banned in many places in Australia including all airports, government offices, hospitals and health care facilities, workplaces, restaurants, shopping centres and within 5 metres of building entrances
- Smoking and drinking are illegal for anyone under 18 years
- All drugs not prescribed by a general practitioner can be considered as illegal

ALCOHOL, TOBACCO & OTHER DRUGS

Understanding drug laws is crucial. Legal drugs include alcohol, caffeine, nicotine, and prescribed medications, while illegal drugs include amphetamines and heroin. Illicit drug use covers misuse of prescriptions and other substances. Some drug laws are different depending on the state or territory you're in.

Legal drugs include

- alcohol
- caffeine
- nicotine
- over-the-counter and prescribed drugs

Some of these have restrictions related to:

- age – for example, you can't legally drink under the age of 18
- where you can use them – for example, you can't drink alcohol or smoke in certain places
- driving – for example, there are limits on blood alcohol concentration when driving
- their sale – for example:
    - tobacco products must display specific health warnings
    - you must have a doctor's prescription to purchase prescribed drugs

Illegal drugs include

- amphetamines
- cannabis (marijuana)
- ecstasy (MDMA)
- heroin

They are banned because using them can endanger your health, your life, or the life of others. Because they are not regulated in the way legal drugs are you can never be sure what's in them or how strong they are.

Illicit drug use includes

- illegal drugs
- misuse or non-prescribed use of prescription drugs (also called pharmaceuticals)
- inappropriate use of other substances – for example, sniffing glue.

ALCOHOL, TOBACCO & OTHER DRUGS

ALCOHOL

Alcohol laws help to reduce the harmful effects of alcohol on individuals, families and communities. Some laws, such as the legal drinking age, are the same across Australia. Other laws, such as where you can drink, are different in each state and territory.

Laws that apply anywhere in Australia

- Legal drinking age – you must be 18 or older to buy alcohol or to drink alcohol in a licensed venue.
- Drink driving – you're breaking the law if you drive and your blood alcohol concentration is equal to or more than 0.05. If you're on a learner or provisional licence, your BAC must be zero.
- Selling alcohol – it's illegal to sell alcohol to anyone under 18 or to someone who is already drunk.
- Labelling – all packaged alcohol must show how many standard drinks it contains.

Guideline 1: Reducing the risk of alcohol-related harm for adults

To reduce the risk of harm from alcohol-related disease or injury, healthy men and women should drink no more than 10 standard drinks a week and no more than 4 standard drinks on any one day. The less you drink, the lower your risk of harm from alcohol.

Guideline 2: Children and people under 18 years of age

To reduce the risk of injury and other harms to health, children and people under 18 years of age should not drink alcohol.

Guideline 3: Women who are pregnant or breastfeeding

- To prevent harm from alcohol to their unborn child, women who are pregnant or planning a pregnancy should not drink alcohol
- For women who are breastfeeding, not drinking alcohol is safest for their baby

Laws that are different in each state and territory

Some alcohol laws are different depending on the state or territory you're in.

VISA COMPLIANCE REMINDER FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENT VISA HOLDERS

As an international student, it is essential to understand and adhere to the conditions of your student visa throughout your course of study.

Please ensure that you do not stay in Australia for purposes not intended by your visa and that you are honest about your visa status when dealing with immigration officials and the college. It is illegal to remain in Australia without a valid visa.

ADHERENCE TO VISA CONDITIONS

- Always Comply with Visa Conditions
  Ensure you are aware of and follow the specific conditions attached to your student visa at all times.
- Restrictions on Visa Changes
  Do not change or apply for a protection visa if your last substantive visa was a student visa granted based on your enrolment with the college.
- Extension of Visa

This could be due to a number of reasons, for example, course deferment or failure to progress. If your student visa has expired within the last 28 days, you can apply for a new student visa.
- Consequences of Unlawful Stay
  Staying in Australia after your visa becomes invalid or expires is a violation of government law. Students who remain in Australia unlawfully for more than 28 days after their student visa has expired are in breach of their visa conditions and may face serious consequences, including being barred from being granted a visa for at least three years. Overstaying a student visa can also result in penalties, including fines, detention, and/or deportation.
